

Point & click

History revisited

Japan is hosting an economic summit of the Group of Eight nations July 21-23 on Okinawa, the island where the final battle of World War II took place. Nick Sarantakes, a history prof at Texas A&M University-Commerce, has created an interesting and informative Web site that covers the bloody battle and why the U.S. continued to occupy the island until 1972.

[faculty.tamu-commerce.edu/sarantakes/
Okinawa.html](http://faculty.tamu-commerce.edu/sarantakes/Okinawa.html)